

Electrical connection strip Sintro standardised, 1230 x 140 x 76 mm

Electrical connection strips are space-saving solutions for office environments. With a sturdy sheet metal housing and height-adjustable mounting, they offer flexibility. Modules can be easily replaced and extended. The WINSTA plug-in connector system simplifies mains connection and wiring. With emergency stop, circuit breaker and five Schuko sockets (D), they are ideal for desk widths of 1230 mm.

- stable sheet metal housing in the form of a parapet channel
- Height variable mounting on the vertical braces
- the individual modules can be exchanged and extended at any time
- WINSTA connector system for mains connection and further wiring
- EMERGENCY STOP, ON/OFF, mains contactor, 5 earthed sockets
