HygoClean cleaning paper roll, blue, 3-ply, 500 sheets 38*35cm, 175 running metres

New: Improved quality thanks to higher quality raw material!
For quick and thorough cleaning! The work tool for the professional. The cleaning paper consists of 3 layers of the blue special fibre Bluetech. The cleaning paper is very absorbent and extremely tear-resistant. It is also very lint-free and wet-stable. The cleaning paper is intended for single sheet removal and is approved for the food processing industry because it is dyed blue. This cleaning paper is suitable for almost any application in production or workshop, in the technical area or for polishing work, in the petrol station, care, clinic or food sector. It is best suited for handling oil, grease and water and it can be used on rough or sensitive surfaces. Tears per roll: 500
