

Hygostar detectable permanent marker, blue housing, blue writing, bullet tip

Detectable markers are an important working tool for large food productions. With a waterproof permanent marker, you can quickly and easily make large markings, and the round, thick tip ensures a clear image. The permanent marker is made of a detectable plastic, which means that the marker can be found by metal detectors and identified as a foreign object if it gets lost in production.

detectable plastic blue housing, black writing durable, waterproof, quick-drying and abrasion-resistant ink with blue cap for sealing, prevents drying out and protects clothing when the marker is stored in the inner pocket HACCP-compliant
