Safety shoe SB, PUMA SAFETY, RIDER BLUE LOW, blue

Experience the perfect mix of protection and comfort with the RIDER BLUE LOW. The lightweight fiberglass toe cap and flexible FAP® penetration protection ensure reliable safety in any environment. Thanks to the metal-free and EH-certified construction, this shoe is ideal for demanding work areas. The breathable sandwich mesh, in combination with robust microfiber, guarantees optimum ventilation and durability. The BreathActive functional lining keeps your feet dry all day long, while the evercushion® CUSTOM FIT MID footbed offers additional comfort. The heat-resistant, non-slip URBAN rubber outsole ensures a secure grip - even at temperatures of up to 300°C. Go for maximum protection, comfort and durability - with the RIDER BLUE LOW!
