PRISMA ESD Universal Stand

Maximum clarity for perfect results
Quality standards in electronics manufacturing are constantly rising—thorough inspection is therefore no longer just optional, but indispensable. The Weller PRISMA ESD Microscope sets new standards in nano-soldering, repair, and electronics inspection by enabling complete 3D visualization of every component. Every solder joint, every trace, and every detail is clearly visible, allowing you to work safely and with the highest precision.

The ESD-safe design protects sensitive components during every inspection. Designed for professionals, the microscope promotes an ergonomic posture and reduces strain during long, demanding work sessions.
Precise inspection capabilities are crucial for reducing errors, minimizing rework, and ensuring compliance. The PRISMA Microscope enables teams to meet the highest quality standards.
